Eight at the Gate Bike to the Beach 2022

Part of the crowd that welcomed the finishing riders, including many from our VB "Gate Crew", prior to the reception on the village green. The ride from Winnipeg, for some and Beausejour for others to Victoria Beach which was held under threatening skies was a lot of fun. This event, while raising money for a great cause, provides an opportunity for riders to "stretch their legs" and develop their cycling skills.

Once again, for the third year in a row the fundraiser for the Lake Winnipeg Foundation, "Bike to the Beach", organized by Scott McDonald has succeeded in exceeding the goal set. This year's total to date is in excess of $135,000 and more donations can be made to riders through the LWF website before the portal closes next week.

Our group rides leave from the gate at 09:00 until Labour Day Monday when we switch to 10:00. We will be back at 08:00 in June next year. For information contact Bob Marshall cell 204 261 4292 or find us on Facebook "Eight at the Gate".

See you on the road!

VB Club Executive Message

How is it possibly mid-August already?! I hope everyone has enjoyed the summer of 2022 thus far. Although the days are getting shorter, there are still plenty of daytime activities to entertain the masses!

I trust everyone enjoyed the ever-popular annual display of VB's Finest snouts and toe beans at the VB Dog Show! Check out the feature in this week's Herald for full details on all the fur baby participants and their many talents.

The lake has made its presence very well known this year, highlighting the importance of protecting Lake Winnipeg and all who enjoy and depend on it. Events like the Bike to the Beach and the Lake Winnipeg Foundation Walk for Water serve to raise not only awareness, but much needed funds towards a pressing issue. A job well done to the organizers of these events, Scott McDonald, Brenda Hearson, Janet Sampson, volunteers, and the VB Walk for Water Committee. VBers and LWF thank you!

Looking ahead to this week's activities, tonight is the night to prove you are, in fact, the smartest person in the room at Trivia Night! I participated in this doozy of an event a few years back and it was difficult to know what made the Clubhouse so hot that night...either the weather or the intense brainwaves, or a healthy combination of both! Best of luck to all you geniuses!

Regardless of the outcome your intellectual endeavours, the Novelty Tennis Tournament will cure what ails you all day on August 13 & 14. What better way to show off your wicked skills you picked up at the tennis clinics this summer!

Of final note, please mark your calendars and attend the VB Annual Meeting at 11:00am on Sunday, August 14 at the Clubhouse. With Shannon wrapping up her time with the executive, there will be an opening on the VB Club Board for Director at Large. We welcome and encourage anyone interested in giving back to our community in this capacity to put their name forward. I promise we're a fun bunch! As Heather mentioned previously, we will have other vacancies to fill including the Special Events Coordinator and the Sports Day Convenor. If you are interested in any of the convenor vacancies or have ideas for new VB Club events that you would like to convene, please reach out to any of the VB Club board members.

Enjoy the rest of August!

Council News

Mother Nature continues to test our shorelines and our patience. Our water table is high, the lake is high, the marsh is high and the rains continue to add to the moisture content. Flooding is still a risk in Albert Beach, Wanasing, Pelican Point, Mike Bay and other low-lying areas. MB Hydro says that the lake level will remain high well into Fall. The high lake level has minimized our beaches and we remind residents and visitors that the sand banks have been eroded and undercut in some areas which can make them unstable. Please do not run, play, dig, or otherwise disturb the fragile sand banks. For your safety and to protect the banks, please stay off the sand banks and the sand dunes.

As summer starts to wind down Council would like to acknowledge the support and service provided to all residents by our amazing employees. We have a great crew of full-time, part-time and seasonal employees who work hard to keep our municipality running smoothly 365 days a year.

Thanks to our Public Works Team – Trevor, Peter, Dane, Reiss, Brian, Dylan, Craig, Noah, Vern, Kim and Tam. Elaine keeps the PW office humming 3 days a week and her office neighbour in the PW building, our Building Inspector, Curtis, keeps our construction, renovation and repairs to homes and cottages on track all year long. These folks perform an amazing number of jobs on any given day and their hands-on contribution to our community is appreciated.

Our Fire Chief and Emergency Coordinator, Brad Patzer, has been kept too busy this summer monitoring the dikes and the ongoing fire risks in our municipality. He and his team of volunteer fire fighters have regular training sessions all year long and are always on call. These men and women all have regular jobs or own their own businesses so when 911 sends out the call they may show up on scene in septic trucks, dump trucks and work vehicles to come to your aid.

Karl and his dedicated VB Golf Course crew - Edwin, David, Rene, Ramona, Lisa, Barry, Whitney and Anne – have had another busy summer. The course is in great shape, new lockers were constructed, tournaments were held and the course is open until October.

Our Winnipeg office staff, Lon, Michelle and Tami keep Council organized, deal with tax and utility payments, variances, presentations, provide information and resources to residents, manage our financial responsibilities and perform a myriad of other tasks that efficiently keep our municipality humming.

Our Police crew of Kevin, Audy, Jim and Anne are out and about patrolling the streets and they are often joined by one or more of our Community Safety Officers, Anthony, Mo, Lacie and Marcus. This new law enforcement system is working really well, and we look forward to making it even better next summer.

The Summer Information Office staff - Caitlyn, Lacey, Skylar and Angie - have respectfully greeted contractors, residents and visitors while giving out maps, information, renting mobility scooters and ensuring those who are approved or who meet the criteria, get their vehicle pass. Vehicle passes for the vehicle restricted area are a privilege, and these ladies were also able to put their foot down when necessary.

Stay up to date with factual municipal news by joining our RM of Victoria Beach Facebook page, watch our Council Meetings from a link on our website at www.rmofvictoriabeach.ca, check our website for updates, forms, documents and other information. We continue to encourage all residents to sign up for VB Connect, our emergency/communication system. Scroll down the home page on our website for the link or contact the RM office for assistance.

Fred Greengrass: 50 Years Driving Taxi at VB

We recently sat down with Fred Greengrass, a genial lifelong summer resident of Victoria Beach. Fred has driven taxis around the restricted area since his first year as a cabbie in 1973 at the age of 18. Fred shared his unique observations on this remarkable tenure, which is combined with some contextual details.

By the 1950s there was increased pressure to allow vehicles onto the avenues during the summer months, although the train brought most passengers and supplies until it ceased service to the beaches in 1962. To address this challenge, Councillor John Ateah proposed a practical solution to the Victoria Beach Company, which controlled much of the infrastructure, and to the RM of VB. His proposal: why not accept that vehicles would continue to drive the highway to the resort in growing numbers? He further proposed the agreed-upon solution which created a parking area adjacent to Arthur Road but outside the restricted area. In 1954, the parking lot and taxi service were launched.

Fred: Fresh out of high school, I needed a summer job and I definitely did not want to work in the city, with my passion for spending another summer at the beach. So, I applied for a job and was picked up to drive for Jessie and Sam Ateah. Then I quickly applied for a chauffeur's licence.

I loved driving the taxis. It was a great way to meet people and find out where all the parties were. The hours were long, ten to twelve hours a day and seven days a week.

In 1973 Fred earned 50% of the fare, plus tips. If you hustled and you were helpful unloading the people's baggage, you could make about four trips an hour, so you could earn $2.50 an hour)

Fred: You had to be extra careful on the avenues because the roads were narrower then and the intersections were blind, and you had to be prepared for a bike suddenly flying through the intersection. Passing another taxi was challenging and might even involve backing up to the nearest clearing. After a rainstorm, there were many puddles so you had to avoid splashing people, although it was tempting depending who the person was.

The taxis were aged station wagons, barely roadworthy but fun to drive. Kids would sit on the rear tailgate. The taxis were primarily the property of the extended Ateah family, including John, Sam, George and Hila, Eddie, cousin Peter and Walter Thomas. Hila Ateah, Kevin Ateah's mother, also drove, Jessie Ateah ran the office at the parking lot and dispatched the taxis.

Fred: I remember one vehicle I operated that did not have a rear window, which made for very dusty rides and did not please everyone. This one time I had driven a couple of young brunettes who occupied the back seat. It was a hot, dusty day and the dust filtered through the back like a vacuum. When they arrived at the cottage, their hair was pure white! Another time there was an old taxi driving out of view ahead of me which had a seized engine but exhaust continued to emit clouds of white smoke. My passenger remarked, "See, they still do mosquito fogging down here. And I thought they had stopped that".

The heart of the parking lot operation has always been the office at the entrance, the 'cabby shack'. Originally constructed with an attached service garage and a gas pump, the office was both control centre and command post. By the 1970s, people ordered their taxis at the few public telephone booths scattered throughout the beach. Fred recalls that this sporadic communication system meant inefficiencies that limited him to about four rides per hour.

Fred: For example, you may have just dropped off an arrival on Sunset only to find when you returned to the parking lot that you immediately had a return trip to the cottage next door. I remember Sunday nights when my dashboard would be littered with pickup notes.

Monday mornings were also busy with weekend commuters who stayed the extra night, which meant they had to get up very early. It was then that some people learned their car battery was dead because their lights had been left on, or a tire had gone flat. Earlier on, George Ateah was called upon for the necessary repairs and more recently, Sandra Ateah's father Victor Parisien worked his mechanical magic.

Fred: One time, a call arrived at the office requesting a taxi for the foot of 8th Avenue. The eager taxi driver hustled into his vehicle to pick up the cottager. When he arrived, he learned that the pick-up was in fact for the next day. When the upset taxi driver returned to the office, he realized in his eagerness that he had missed processing the entire message. The cabbies gathered in the office laughed, but this would not have happened with today's improved communication devices.

With the end of the rail service in 1962, the parking lot and its lively office became the 'nerve centre' of the restricted area. The 'cabby shack' office had a phone, it had staff 24 hours and it could dispatch or coordinate assistance when needed. For generations of cabbies, the office was where they spent quieter hours as well, where they played crib and cards (although frequently disrupted) and hung out between rides. If the rest of us had some problem, needed to know about the mosquito or bear situation, required random information, it was here that you came for answers because the taxi drivers knew the score. The bus shelter on the west side was always occupied, as it is now, by people waiting for arrivals and departures. Bike racks have been added to over the years. The lot has gradually expanded from the initial five rows in 1962, then six, seven and eight in 1973, and today's expanded area in the 1980s and 90s. The parking lot staff have seen it all, witnesses to the beachers' interactions, the drama, the teary farewells, the excited reunions.

Fred: Well, all these summers have come and gone and there have been many changes. The station wagons have been replaced by mini vans and are much more reliable. Radios and cell phones have improved the communication. I suppose that the toddlers I have driven this year could be the grandchildren of the toddlers I drove in the early seventies. But what has not changed is the thrill of driving taxi at Victoria Beach, and the magic of those experiences has not diminished. It is truly the best job I have ever had. It has been quite the ride.

Results of a Study on the Use of Facebook Community Groups to Avoid Bears, Wolves, and Coyotes

Alexander Martin

Earlier this year, we undertook a research study on how wildlife sightings (bears, wolves, and coyote) posted on Victoria Beach's community Facebook groups helped people avoid wildlife interactions. We used an online survey posted to the community Facebook groups to learn from community members.

As urbanization – including cottage-country development – continues around the world, the expansion of humans into the wildland-urban interface can negatively impact wildlife and cause an increase in human-wildlife conflict. The majority of people who completed the online survey (“respondents”) had previously encountered a bear in Victoria Beach, versus less than half who had encountered a wolf or coyote.

The majority of people changed their behaviour as a result of wildlife sightings posted on Facebook. People commonly detoured around areas to avoid recently sighted wildlife or did not let pets outside the house or cottage. Close to 90% of respondents used bear-resistant garbage cans or did not put garbage out on the street. Wildlife safety training was not common amongst survey respondents, although most respondents were teaching children in their family how to avoid dangerous wildlife.

As concern about bears, wolves, or coyotes increased, survey respondents were more likely to change their behaviour to avoid wildlife. While the wildlife sightings posts were used by respondents concerned about bears, wolves, or coyotes, they also increased anxiety about wildlife sightings, although anxiety was generally still rated as low.

People felt strongly about the importance of protecting wildlife in and around VB. People were also interested in increased education about wildlife safety in the community, as well as pamphlets on wildlife safety (ex. garbage disposal efforts) for visitors at the Front Gate.

A Survey on Wildfire Prevention in VB

In another study, we are examining how FireSmart mitigation practices are perceived by property owners in Victoria Beach. The primary focus of the research is to determine how people balance interests in wildfire prevention/mitigation with interests in vegetation on their property and the community's forest.

To research these perspectives, an anonymous survey (UBC Ethics ID # H22-01540) has been created. The research seeks the input of property owners, or representatives of property owners, from around Victoria Beach to learn how people are undertaking wildfire prevention and their knowledge of the FireSmart program. The research will contribute to wildfire prevention and the adoption of FireSmart in higher density cottage areas, informing public policy on balancing FireSmart and community forestry.

If you are interested in participating in the ~5-minute survey, the QR code provides access to the anonymous online survey. Using your smartphone camera, you can scan the QR code to access the survey.

2022 Victoria Beach Dog Show

What an incredible turnout for the annual VB Dog Show! We were so pleased to have so many wonderful dogs and their owners participate – 66 dogs in total – a new record for the show! As always, we had every variety of breed, size and age participate from the six month old, beautiful Alaskan Malamute, Mishka, to the wonderful senior dog Aja at 16 ½ years old. We saw Weimaraners, Bulldogs, Corgis and every possible doodle combo known to man! They were the sweetest, friendliest group of dogs we've ever seen. All the dogs were entered into one of five different categories with a winner picked in each category. From those, the judges chose a winner of the VIP trophy (Very Important Pooch). The categories were Seniors, Puppies, Doodles, Good Dogs and Best Trick. As always, the judges had a very difficult time in making the selections as all the dogs were adorable. The winner of the VIP trophy for the 2022 show was Sandie Renaldo a sweet, two year-old beagle who performed her dramatic "Bang" trick and who has been a wonderful addition to her family during Covid. Congratulations to Sandie and the entire Kilbrei family!

Our thanks to the Rec staff for their help. All the doggy participants received a coloured bandana, poop bags and dog treats - so if you see a cute doggy wearing a bandana, they were likely at the VB Dog Show! Thank you to all the dogs and their families for participating and making this such a special event. We hope to see everyone again next year!

Welcome back everyone - for another great summer!

Victoria Beach Junior Golf Tournament

It was another great Victoria Beach Junior Golf Tournament at the beautiful 9 hole VB golf course. It was great to see all the kids come out early and ready to tackle the course. As always Karl and his staff had the course in great shape, with a well organized Pro Shop. The weather held up for our morning shotgun with a bit of a drizzle in the early going and then clearing up as the morning went on. There was some great golf that was played and a lot of smiles. The kids always seem to get along so well and really just enjoy being out on the course. A big thank you to all the parent chaperones, who kept score for some of the younger groups, which made things go a lot smoother. Also, many thanks to all the generous donations that were given for this event by the following; RM of V.B., Men's Putting Contest (Men's Open), Sale of used golf clubs (Karl & VB Pro Shop), Glen Torgerson, Karl H., Mary MacIntosh and other anonymous people. Every kid playing in the event got a great prize, a can of pop and chips.

Walk for Water 2022: Huge Thanks to All Supporters!

On August 7th, the Art Vincent Memorial stage and surrounding Village Green was abuzz with eager striders, lacing up their shoes, stretching their hamstrings; warming up for the Walk for Water, in support of a healthy lake and the Lake Winnipeg Foundation (LWF). On the stroke of ten, Elder Mae Louise Campbell offered a special water blessing and Mayor Penny McMorris kicked off the annual event. With pledges from families and friends, people of all ages, several babies and dogs, took to the byways of Victoria Beach and strolled 2.5 Km around the beach, in an effort to raise awareness and advocate for solutions to improve Lake Winnipeg's water quality.

All funds raised were donated to the LWF, which has been advocating for change and coordinating action for fresh water solutions since 2005. As an environmental non-governmental organization, it relies on membership fees, grants, donations and proceeds raised through the annual Victoria Beach community's signature events.

The Walk for Water is only possible with the assistance of a cadre of volunteers, supporters and sponsors. Thank you to the organizing committee: Brenda Hearson and Janet Sampson (co-chairs) Linda Dart, Kathryn Dompierre, Carol Falkenberg, Meg Gray, Christine Kulas, Deanne McDonald; VB Committee alumni Karin Boyd, Sheila Grover, and Sandy McCaig; and LWF staff Madison Yogis, Rainah Uhl, and Marlo Campbell. Thanks to Carol Falkenberg, Meg Gray and Christine Kulas for coordinating and advertising the Bid for Lake Winnipeg Art Auction.

Together, we can make the changes required for a clean, healthy Lake Winnipeg and surrounding watershed. See you again next year on the starting line to 'save the lake.'

Tennis News

On Tuesday, August 2, the 2022 Girl's Tennis Day finally became a reality with approximately 30 girls attending. The third attempt was a charm! Thank you to convenors Natasha Blair and Megan Strome who have looked after this event the last several years and are looking for new convenors for this event.

This year's last clinic, the Kirbyson Adult Doubles Clinic was held on Tuesday, August 9th (weather permitting). Thanks go out to Geoff Kirbyson for sharing his knowledge leading three double clinics this year.

The last official tennis event of the season will be this weekend's Novelty Tennis Tournament. This is convenor Frank Manning's third and last year convening and we know he will make it extra special! We are looking for a convenor for next year's event.

As we did last year, there will be a bonus tennis event on the September long weekend. On Saturday, September 3 the MEGA GVS tennis frenzy will be held from 11:00 am to 1:00 pm. All ages and abilities are invited to attend. We will be looking for a few feeders. Please let us know if you are available.

Library News

Hi VB!

We can't believe that the summer is almost over! Remember to return all your books by August 15. You can drop your books off while we're open or through the slot in the door while the library is closed. The library will be open this weekend, but we'll be closed for the season afterwards. Thank you all so much for an amazing summer that we hope was filled with plenty of great reads!

Here is our last book of the week:

Title: The Hate U Give

Author: Angie Thomas

Genre: Fiction

Age Category: Young Adult

Starr Carter is a 16-year-old girl who lives in a poor neighbourhood but attends a wealthy prep school. One day, as she is driving home with her best friend Khalil, they find themselves getting pulled over by a police officer. What starts as a routine traffic stop suddenly escalates when Khalil, who was unarmed, is shot. Starr is left to grieve as the story rises to the top of the news. Rumours spread that Khalil was involved in a rather nefarious lifestyle and deserved what had happened to him, but Starr knows that in reality, he was just the opposite: He had good grades and was considered by most a good person and student. The Hate U Give focuses on how Starr must deal with the fallout of this event, from navigating large protests in her neighbourhood to coming to terms with a world where the people supposed to protect her are not always on her side. This book is a stark reminder of the injustice that still exists in our world and begs the question: what can we do about it?
